

Our Common Home – responding to the climate emergency and the world’s poor

Public Lecture 12th November 2019. RUGBY INTERFAITH FORUM
www.interfaithinrugby.org.uk

Speaker profile	Christine Allen, Director of CAFOD (the Catholic Agency for Overseas Development) will talk about the cooperation of faith communities in responding to poverty overseas. Previously she was Director of Policy & Public Affairs at Christian Aid, and before that she was Director of Progressio with responsibility for overseas assignments.	 Christine Allen Director, CAFOD
Date/Time	12th November 2019. 6.30pm for 6.45pm
Venue	Collingwood Centre, Rugby School, Oak Street, Off Dunchurch Road, Rugby, Warwickshire, (Formerly the Bishop Wulstan School)
Parking	The free car park entrance is in Barby Road and its postcode is CV22 5DZ .
Meal	A simple vegetarian meal will be served at 6.30pm. The lecture will start at 7.30pm and the event will end at 9pm. Complimentary tea and coffee will also be served.
Fee	£7.50 is payable at the door. All proceeds beyond the meal to CAFOD
Register	Please register your intention to come by emailing the Rugby Interfaith Forum using the email address lecture@interfaithinrugby.org.uk

All are very welcome